

Biography of Mr. Andreas Maier

Author of the paper "Nonlinear SAR/INS Integration using Sigma-Point Kalman Filter"

Andreas Maier completed his degree in electrical engineering and information theory at the University of Karlsruhe, Germany in 2005. Afterwards he has joined the Institute of Systems Optimization in Karlsruhe and works as a Ph. D. candidate. His research topics are terrain referenced navigation systems (TRN), especially the integration of synthetic aperture radar sensors.

